Security Interest

This is a secured loan. The Lender has a security interest over the Vehicle and other property that is proceeds arising from any sale, lease or other use of the Vehicle to secure performance of your obligations under this Contract and the payment of money payable under this Contract and each Related Agreement.

If you fail to meet your commitments under this Contract or any Related Agreement, the Lender may take possession of the Vehicle or any proceeds and sell them. Your obligation to pay all amounts you are required to pay the Lender under this Contract will continue. If the Lender sells the Vehicle or proceeds, it may deduct from the amount you owe an amount equal to the sale proceeds the Lender receives from that sale once it has deducted its related costs and expenses.

If you sell, lease, transfer or in any way lose possession or control of the Vehicle or any proceeds, you will be in default under this Contract and the Lender may be entitled to collect the Vehicle and the proceeds from any other person or business who has possession of them.

Locating Functionality

The Vehicle has built into its factory hardware functionality whereby the Lender may locate the Vehicle, and be informed of whether the Vehicle is running and its odometer reading.

The Lender may only activate this functionality if it has previously attempted to repossess the Vehicle at your premises in accordance with the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003, and was unable to locate the Vehicle.

For the avoidance of doubt, this Locating Functionality does not disable the Vehicle.

Interest

Annual Interest Rate _____ % per annum fixed for the whole term of this Contract. Interest is payable in arrears.

Method of Charging Interest

The estimate of loss will be calculated using the formula prescribed in regulation 9 of the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Regulations 2004.

You may also have to pay the Lender's administrative costs relating to the full prepayment, in accordance with clause 9.1(c) of the Terms and Conditions.

Default Interest

If you default in payment under this Contract, and while the default continues, the Lender may charge you default interest on the amount in default. Default interest is calculated as the aggregate of the Annual Interest Rate plus 10% and will be charged at the end of each day on the amount in default (which includes accrued Interest and other Credit Fees and Charges). Default interest is payable to the Lender on demand.

Continuing Disclosure and Electronic Communication

The Lender will send you statements with information about this Contract every 6 months either, at the Lender's option, by post, facsimile, email or through the Lender's website.

If the Lender decides to send statements, notices, documents and communications to you or a Guarantor electronically, you and each Guarantor consent to the Lender sending such information in that manner, including by email to the addresses specified in this Disclosure Statement, or such other email addresses provide to the Lender, or through the Lender's website.

What to do if you suffer unforeseen hardship

If you are unable to keep up your payments under this Contract because of an unexpected event that causes you hardship, such as illness, injury, loss of employment or the end of a relationship, you can apply to the Lender for a hardship variation.

To apply for a hardship variation you need to make a request to the Lender in writing which explains your situation and requests one of the following variations:

- (a) extending the term of this Contract and reducing the amount of each payment due under this Contract accordingly (without a consequential change being made to the annual interest rate);
- (b) giving you longer to pay by postponing, during a specified period, the dates on which payments are due under this Contract (without a consequential change being made to the annual interest rate); or
- (c) both of the above – postponing payments for a specified time and reducing the amount of your payments by extending the term.

You should do this as soon as possible, because if you leave it for too long, the Lender does not have to consider your application.

Where required, the Lender will give you, or a Guarantor (as applicable) notice of any change in accordance with the CCCFA.

You and each Guarantor (if any) shall notify the Lender of any change in your respective addresses.

22. GUARANTEE

22.1 Guarantee and indemnity

In consideration of the Lender entering into this Contract at the request of the Borrower and each Guarantor, each Guarantor jointly and severally:

- guarantees the payment of all amounts payable by the Borrower and the performance of all the Borrower's obligations to the Lender, under this Contract now, or at any time (Guaranteed Amount);
- agrees to pay the Lender any amount payable by the Borrower under this Contract as soon as the Lender demands it; and
- indemnifies the Lender against all costs and expenses (including legal costs incurred on a solicitor/own client basis), losses and liabilities incurred by the Lender, and all claims made and proceedings brought against the Lender because the Lender cannot enforce the above guarantee for whatever reason. This may include a situation where the Lender has no legal right to recover an amount payable under this Contract from the Borrower,

(together this Guarantee and Indemnity)

The above indemnity is a principal obligation and is separate to the Borrower's obligations to the Lender under this Contract and a guarantee and indemnity given by another Guarantor. The Lender can require any Guarantor to pay any Guaranteed Amount before or instead of requiring the Borrower or another Guarantor to pay it.

If a Guarantor does not pay any of the Guaranteed Amount when the Lender demands it, the Lender may, among other things:

- sue the Guarantor, or if the Guarantor has given a security interest which secures this Guarantee and Indemnity, the Lender can enforce it; and
- require the Guarantor to pay all its reasonable costs and expenses of enforcing this Guarantee and Indemnity, including legal fees and costs incurred on a solicitor/own client basis.

22.2 Obligations are unconditional

The obligations of each Guarantor under this Guarantee and Indemnity are unconditional, which means each Guarantor will continue to be liable even if:

- The Lender does not exercise any of its rights against the Borrower or another person;
- The Lender gives the Borrower more time to pay any amount payable under this Contract or any Related Agreement or any other concession;
- The Lender makes a different arrangement or makes a compromise with the Borrower;
- The Lender gives the Borrower or another person a discharge or release or limits the Lender's rights;
- The Lender does not take security even if that security was mentioned to the Guarantor; or
- The Borrower or anyone else has any claim against the Lender.

22.3 Contract can be changed

The Lender and the Borrower may change this Contract at any time without the consent of the Guarantors. This includes a change that increases the liability or obligations of a Guarantor under this Guarantee and Indemnity provided where required, the Lender discloses that change in accordance with the CCCFA.

22.4 Guarantors still liable after Borrower makes payment

The obligations of each Guarantor under this Guarantee and Indemnity are continuing, which means they apply to all amounts payable under this Contract, even if some of it has been paid by the Borrower or another person, and even if there is any limit on the total amount the Lender may be able to recover from the Borrower under this Contract or any Related Agreement.

22.5 How the Lender will apply money it receives

If the Lender receives or recovers any money in respect of any amount payable by the Borrower, the Lender may use it to pay off whichever part of the Borrower's debt it chooses. The Lender does not have to apply the money for a Guarantor's benefit.

22.6 Refunding of payments

If the Lender is required to refund any amount which the Borrower or anyone else has paid to the Lender, or which the Lender has recovered in any way (including in an administration, liquidation or receivership), each Guarantor will owe the Lender all amounts they would have owed if the amount refunded had never been paid or recovered.

This obligation continues even after this Contract is terminated or this Guarantee and Indemnity is discharged.

22.7 Other payments

If the Lender is required to deduct any tax from any payment:

- (a) each Guarantor promises to pay that amount to the appropriate authority; and
- (b) the amount payable to the Lender will be increased so that after deducting that tax the Lender receives the same amount it would have received had no deduction been made.

22.8 Release in writing

No discharge or release of a Guarantor from its liabilities under this Guarantee and Indemnity shall be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the Lender or one of its officers.

22.9 Liability to continue

The liability of each Guarantor shall continue even if the Lender has taken possession of the Vehicle pursuant to this Contract.
